

Reporting form for safeguarding allegations and concerns

WageIndicator is committed to protecting every person supported or assisted by the work we do, fund and advocate. This includes all recipients of our services, supervisory board members, directors, international staff, its employees (full time or part time) working across the globe, interns, consultants and contracted individuals for specific projects.

This form should be used to report any safeguarding incident or concern relating to WageIndicator staff, supervisory board members, directors, intern, consultant and contracted individual.

WageIndicator has a duty of care to all who work for the organisation. It takes a survivor centred approach to complainants. Throughout, it is guided in its response by its policy base and agreed procedures and by its accountability to its supervisory body.

We understand that talking and writing about incidents can be a difficult and emotional process. We appreciate the time and energy you invest into this report.

This form will not be shared beyond WageIndicator. We will always aim to seek consent before acting unless it describes a situation in which you or others are at risk of harm. In such circumstances, we may be obligated to notify others, including relevant authorities. We will always inform you of actions taken.

We understand that you may wish to submit this report anonymously. However, in some cases, anonymised reports can limit our ability to investigate further. If you wish to disclose your name on a confidential basis, we will make every effort to maintain this confidence. Please return this form to our confidential email: rupakorde at wageindicator dot org
